

IELTS Preparation Course

IELTS (International English Language Testing System) is an examination in academic English skills required by many universities and colleges and healthcare institutions. Additionally, applicants for Citizenship and certain types of visa are required to prove that their English is at a certain level and IELTS is a recognised way of doing this.

Our preparation course helps you build exam strategies and language skills for taking IELTS and improves your familiarity with the exam format.

Why study IELTS preparation at CESC?

Our structured IELTS preparation courses build on years of experience preparing students to take the IELTS exam.

Our teachers specialise in IELTS lessons and will help students develop the necessary skills, techniques and information for success.

How can I pass IELTS?

There is no pass mark for IELTS. Candidates are graded on a scale of 1 to 9.

For a foundation year IELTS 5 – 5.5 is normally needed, for an undergraduate degree IELTS 6 – 6.5 is needed, and for a postgraduate degree IELTS 6 – 7 is needed, depending on the subject studied.

What level do I need to be?

All students must be at B1 level or above on the CEFR framework to benefit from this course and will be level tested prior to joining. Students at B1 level of English join our IELTS B1 Foundation course. Students of B2 level or above join our IELTS B2 course.

When can I study IELTS?

The course runs throughout the year, enabling students to start on most Mondays. The course programme provides 25 x 50 minutes of intensive lessons designed to prepare students for taking the IELTS examination.
